

September 12th - Zoom Meeting

Meeting called to order at 7:30pm (PST)

Welcome - Tiffany

- Tiffany would like to see meetings start with shoutouts to people that we have noticed did awesome things during the week
- Shoutout to Danielle for keeping up with Instagram and learning the new platform
- Shoutout to Jesika for making it through all the crazy traveling and amazing things she does in one piece
- Shoutout to Kaitlyn for pushing through all the difficult things she is currently going through
- Shoutout to Michelle because even through all of the health issues she is pushing through and helping us succeed

Officer Reports

- Vice President of Communication - Danielle
 - Reminder that Rocky Review bios are due September 21st
 - Reminder that fall conference proposals are due September 24th
 - Google Calendar reminders sent out to the team
- Northern District Executive
 - There is no officer for this position so it will serve as a placeholder for northern district announcements from members of the team
- Eastern District Executive - Elizabeth
 - Elizabeth was not able to make it to the meeting so there are no announcements this week.
- Southern District Executive - Kaitlyn
 - Kaitlyn's chapter had their first info session which had thirty-five attendees. She has not heard anything from the other college in her district but will continue to reach out.
- Western District Executive - Jesika
 - Jesika spoke to the UCC Scholars at her school to try to recruit them to join PTK. There was some interest and a few possible new officers. While at Menucha, Jesika spoke with some students from Rogue Community College who are interested in restarting their chapter. We also have an alumni at Central Oregon Community College who is interested in starting a chapter at their college. We need to get the contact info for that alum.

Webinars

- During the week try to think of things that we can host webinars about and bring those ideas to the next meeting to discuss them with the team
- Possible idea: Jack Kent Cook Scholarship Webinar

Fall Conference

- Hotel
 - Hampton Inn Downtown Boise
 - The regional team got upgraded to suites for free
 - Waiting for contract and food costs to open registration. Approximate cost to register may be about seventy-five dollars.
 - Rooms are $139.00 a night for two queens or one king
- Travel
 - Next week we will discuss travel in more depth
 - Jesika and Kaitlyn get one way tickets to Boise
- Incentives
 - Announce the “fourth is free” when releasing registration
 - Announce sweatshirts will be available when releasing registration
 - Have a field inside registration in order to collect sizes
 - The team decided on navy blue sweatshirts with the RMC logo on the side of the chest
 - The team would like to look into the possibility of writing Phi Theta Kappa down the sleeve but it will depend on how drastic the cost difference is
 - Create travel assistance google form (Michelle will create this). Send link and deadline for assistance in an email to chapter officers and advisors.
- Support to the home chapter?
 - No/Little support needed until we arrive
 - Once we arrive then we will give support to the team as it is needed

Rocky Review

- Officer bios are due September 21st
 - Kaitlyn's bio is due September 24th
- Possible calendar on the website and in the Rocky Review
 - Danielle will send out a draft of the Rocky Review calendar page before the next meeting

Regional Coordinator Notes

- Michelle says thank you to the entire team because we are amazing and motivated
- Michelle says thank you to Tiffany, Danielle, and Jesika for participating in the Tillamook Training
- Note to officers: Don't overthink your conference proposals

Meeting adjourned at 8:04pm (PST)
